

TAKESE MAY BE INDICTED.

Grand Jury Begins Its Investigation of the Ludlow Street Jail Scandal.

FELONY OR MISDEMEANOR.

U. S. Commissioner Shields and Many Government Inspectors as Witnesses.

JAIL EMPLOYEES SUMMONED.

A Searching Inquiry Into the Handling of Important Prisoners.

The Grand Jury today began an investigation into the escape of Killoran, Allen and Russell from Ludlow Street Jail on July 4, which may result in the indictment of Sheriff Tamsen for felony or misdemeanor.

United States Commissioner Shields was subpoenaed to go before the Grand Jury this morning to testify to his commitment of the Post-Office robbers to Ludlow Street Jail.

The Commissioner had quite a long conference with Acting District-Attorney Weeks and Assistant District-Attorney Battle before going into the Grand Jury room.

United States Deputy Marshal Kennedy, together with several other deputy marshals and a number of Post-Office inspectors, was also summoned as a witness.

John Bauer and John Harpagnel, both keepers at Ludlow Street Jail, and William Feldheimer, the engineer of the jail, were also summoned, as was Rosa Mallon and another girl, waitresses at the jail.

Assistant District-Attorney Battle, when asked whether the case to be presented to the Grand Jury would call for an indictment for a felony or a misdemeanor against Sheriff Tamsen, said:

"I cannot tell what the Grand Jury may do. All I can say is that all the evidence on our possession will be laid before that body."

Mr. Battle did not know whether or not the Grand Jury would pay a visit to Ludlow Street Jail today in accordance with the suggestion made by Recorder Goff on Friday last in his charge concerning the escape of the prisoners.

The Grand Jury took up the case of the Sheriff ahead of everything else this morning, and spent the entire forenoon in examining witnesses regarding the treatment of prisoners in Ludlow Street Jail and questioning them as to what liberties they had been given.

One of the witnesses before the Grand Jury this morning was a civil prisoner who was at the jail at the time of the escape, and who will testify that he was a witness to it, but that he did not see any pistols in the hands of the robbers.

This witness said he was a musical critic, but declined to give his name to a reporter.

He is the fat man who was writing a letter in the office of the jail at the time the keepers were held up. He said he was so excited at the time that he may have been a little confused, but that he could not remember that he had seen any weapons of any kind in the hands of Killoran or his companions.

The second witness after Commissioner Shields testified was Samuel Frederick, the employee at Ludlow Street Jail who said that he was offered a $500 bribe by the prisoners to allow them to escape and who reported to the Sheriff the fact that such an offer was made.

The District-Attorney considers Frederick's testimony of extreme importance, as it shows that Sheriff Tamsen was warned that the prisoners were trying to get away, and it is shown that the Sheriff took no extra precautions.

After the opinion of the District-Attorney, guilty of criminal negligence.

THIS HIGHWAYMAN FOILED.

Policeman Kammer Caught Smith Before He Robbed Fisher.

While walking through West Eleventh street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, at 1 o'clock this morning Philip Fisher, of 518 East One Hundred and Seventeenth street, was set upon by a young man who tried to steal his watch.

Fisher made desperate resistance, and shouted loudly for help. His cries attracted the notice of Policeman Kammer, of the Mercer street station, and he went to Fisher's assistance. Kammer is a sprinter, and he speedily overtook the robber after a chase of a couple of blocks.

The prisoner said he was Charles Smith, twenty-two years of age, of 22 West Twenty-ninth street. He did not secure any booty from Fisher. He was held for trial in Jefferson Market Court this morning.

Allies No Proof of Forgery.

Application was made to Justice Beckman, in Supreme Court, for a writ of habeas corpus against the East River Ship Company in suits brought by the National Union Bank and the Bank of America to recover $45,000, alleged to have been received by the company on notes bearing interest.

Justice Beckman, in his decision, held that the company was not a party to the suits, and that the notes were not its property. He also held that the company was not liable for the interest on the notes.

Burglars at Nine.

Two two-year-old Italian boys were held in $500 bail for trial on a charge of burglary in Jefferson Market Court this morning. They were charged with the burglary of a jewelry store at 41 Thompson street. They were arrested at 2 o'clock yesterday by William H. Drake, a carriage repository, at 29 and 32 West Street.

All the Dallas Matches Closed.

DALLAS, Tex., July 28.—A series of accidents for the O'Donnell-Miller contest and the Ryan-Mallon contest have been received in this city. They have been signed by all parties except President Stuart. He will see his signature in the papers and send the money to New York. Tamsen Ryan and "Moose" Billy Smith have been substituted for Ryan and Pinner.

BIG STRIKE OF TAILORS ON.

(Continued from First Page.)

Union agreement up to 3 P. M., according to the report of the Brotherhood. Joseph Shulman, of ex-Assistant District-Attorney Bradley's office, is in the room at the Brotherhood, and attended all the services of the agreement. He said the Brotherhood was in a very strong position.

One hundred and sixty non-union girls were present at the meeting. The girls were from the Brotherhood. They were dressed in a mass-meeting at the Brooklyn strikers this afternoon at the Labor Temple.

Acting Chief Conlin has ordered all vacations stopped, and the police are to be kept on duty for any trouble that may arise.

RIOTS IN WILLIAMSBURG.

Police Called to Quell Disturbances Caused by the Strike.

The strikers in Brooklyn congregated this forenoon and visited 91 Siegel street, the office of the Civil Contractors' Association.

In the rear of the office is a shop conducted by Emanuel Silverstein. According to Mrs. Silverstein the strikers broke into her room and assaulted her. She has a broken pitcher, which she says one of the strikers threw at her.

There were fully two persons in front of 91 Siegel street when a policeman from the Sixth Precinct appeared. He telephoned to Police Headquarters and a patrol wagon with twenty policemen from the Sixth Precinct arrived and dispersed the crowd.

From 91 Siegel street the strikers went to 100 Siegel street, where Louis Schachner conducts a shop. Strikers were thrown in the window, but no damage was done.

The next place visited was 131 Siegel street, Isaac Heller's shop. No disturbance was raised, but the strikers threw at workers to come out and join the strikers. They refused to do so.

Police Chief Conlin detained a dozen policemen in citizen dress to the door of the Heller shop. The strikers also had police men on all the street corners. The appearance of the police had the effect of quieting the strikers.

Aside from the assault upon Mrs. Silverstein, no violence has been reported to the police.

There was a small riot at the sweat shop of Kaufman & Cohen, at 27 Siegel street, Williamsburg, this morning. The firm's 20 employees went out on strike, and when they came to take their places the strikers rebelled.

There was a half-pulling and scratching match between the strikers and non-union hands for half an hour, and then a platoon of police from the Sixth Precinct arrived and dispersed the crowd.

At 1 o'clock another small riot took place at the Heller shop. The strikers went to take the places of union men. The police were called to disperse the crowd.

IN THE WORLD OF LABOR.

Michael Sherman has been elected delegate to the Brooklyn Central Labor Union by Baker's Union No. 1.

The Journeymen Stone Carriers' Society has its picnic and games at Sutter's Harlem River camp today.

Charles Lynchburg is a new delegate to the Central Labor Union, elected by the Atlantic Coast Union.

Abraham Mitchell and William J. O'Brien were elected trustees of the Central Labor Union.

Steinway & Sons' employees have an annual picnic at Silver Spring, North Beach, L. I., next Sunday.

The Central Labor Union yesterday elected delegates O'Leary, Jones and Ryan as members of the Executive Committee of the Central Labor Union.

Delegates Gunn has been appointed to a vacancy on the Executive Committee of the Central Labor Union.

The Amalgamated Society of Plumbers and Gas-Fitters holds a special meeting this evening at the Central Labor Union.

Charles Wolf has been elected as a delegate to the Central Labor Union by the Plumbers' Union.

The newly elected Treasurer of Branch 4 of the Workmen's Amalgamated Brotherhood of Frank J. Beran, and Stephen Bacher has been elected.

George Schmidt and John Horner were elected yesterday by Local Assembly 227, K. of L., to the Executive Board.

In place of ex-delegate Crowe and Thomas, delegates John and O'Brien were elected members of the Arbitration Committee of the Central Labor Union.

John J. O'Brien of the K. of L. of the Central Labor Union was elected as a delegate to the Executive Committee of the Central Labor Union.

John C. Wolf has resigned as Secretary of the Central Labor Union. He was succeeded by Charles Wolf.

The Executive Committee of the Housewives' Union will endeavor to make arrangements with the Central Labor Union for a picnic at Silver Spring, North Beach, L. I., next Sunday.

The Iron League has refused to recognize the twenty-four hour work day. It has decided to hold a demonstration which would show the public that the work day is not a thing to be trifled with.

FOR MURDER IN PRUSSIA.

Mrs. Heinze and Her Accomplice Before Commissioner Lyman.

Madilla Heinze and Oskar Hoffman were arraigned today before United States Commissioner Lyman on the charge of murder committed in Saratoga, Prussia.

The victim is said to be the woman's first husband, John Heinze, who is alleged to have been killed by the wife on July 28, 1894, in the employ of Heinze as porter, is charged with being the accomplice of the woman and with having helped her to this country. John Heinze was killed by the wife and Oskar Hoffman on July 28, 1894, in the employ of Heinze as porter, is charged with being the accomplice of the woman and with having helped her to this country. John Heinze was killed by the wife and Oskar Hoffman on July 28, 1894, in the employ of Heinze as porter, is charged with being the accomplice of the woman and with having helped her to this country.

BEATEN IN THE JAIL.

Negro Lee Said to Have Been Injured by White Prisoners.

His Head Wrapped in Bandages When Arraigned in Court.

His Lawyer Says Tombs Keepers Did Not Try to Interfere.

Philip Lee, a young negro, whose head was wrapped in bandages, was arraigned before Recorder Goff this morning charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

He pleaded guilty to the charge, and said that on July 25 he was standing in Mulberry bend, when a policeman of the Elizabeth street station told him to "move on." He refused to move, and the policeman arrested him.

The policeman also told him to "move on." He refused to move, and the policeman arrested him. The policeman also told him to "move on." He refused to move, and the policeman arrested him.

As soon as Lee pleaded guilty, his lawyer, A. B. Cowan, also a colored man, addressed Recorder Goff and said:

"Your Honor, before you pass sentence upon this man, I wish to call your attention to what I consider a subject for inquiry upon the part of your Honor."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

"Whenever the prisoners were let out of their cells for exercise, the white men would say, 'Buck the nigger in the head,' and would beat him with their hands. I have been beaten in the Tombs since he was locked up there to await the action of the Grand Jury."

COMING TO SEE PLATT.

State Committee Meets at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-morrow.

Boss Platt's State Committee will meet at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-morrow. Republicans of local prominence from most of the up-State counties are coming to town to-day, and will interview the boss at 5 Broadway to get orders for the coming election.

The Committee's meeting will probably be as harmonious as Platt could desire. It will probably promulgate a defense of the last Legislature, the most vicious and worthless the State has ever known, and arrange matters in the way of nominations to suit the machine leaders.

The slate for candidates for the State Senate whose nominations are favored will also be patched. Pretty nearly all of the old Platt henchmen will be re-nominated, with the exception of Coggeshall, Umlauf, Stapleton, of Madison, Robertson, of Westchester, John Aldison, of Saratoga, and Reynolds and Owens, of Kings. The most interesting of the new men to be favored is Editor William Barnes, of Albany, who is a high bidder for the nomination.

The Committee will also settle some disputes over the Assembly's nominations in several districts. The most important of the question of nominations for State offices.

It is not probable that the exercise question will be considered.

STRONG RETURNS TO-DAY.

Runners of a Three-Cornered Political Fight Met to-day.

This is the last day of Mayor Strong's vacation. He left Richmond Springs this morning, and will arrive in town at 3 o'clock this afternoon, but will not get to duty until to-morrow morning.

The Mayor will probably go direct to Elberon on reaching the city, and will make that resort his home during August and part of September.

Politicians are awaiting the Mayor's return with great interest, to learn what his attitude will be towards the plan to reorganize the combination against Tammany next Fall.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

According to a close personal friend, the Mayor is not a reformer, and is more active political experience for a year or two, and will stand aside and watch the fight between the Platt crowd and the reformers.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

According to a close personal friend, the Mayor is not a reformer, and is more active political experience for a year or two, and will stand aside and watch the fight between the Platt crowd and the reformers.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

According to a close personal friend, the Mayor is not a reformer, and is more active political experience for a year or two, and will stand aside and watch the fight between the Platt crowd and the reformers.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

According to a close personal friend, the Mayor is not a reformer, and is more active political experience for a year or two, and will stand aside and watch the fight between the Platt crowd and the reformers.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

According to a close personal friend, the Mayor is not a reformer, and is more active political experience for a year or two, and will stand aside and watch the fight between the Platt crowd and the reformers.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

According to a close personal friend, the Mayor is not a reformer, and is more active political experience for a year or two, and will stand aside and watch the fight between the Platt crowd and the reformers.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

According to a close personal friend, the Mayor is not a reformer, and is more active political experience for a year or two, and will stand aside and watch the fight between the Platt crowd and the reformers.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

According to a close personal friend, the Mayor is not a reformer, and is more active political experience for a year or two, and will stand aside and watch the fight between the Platt crowd and the reformers.

The Platt people are dead set against such a combine, and it is believed they would rather see Tammany win than give the reformers in and out of their own party another chance.

It is impossible, however, that if the Mayor gives the word the combine will be effected, and if the Platt crowd could outwit a three-cornered fight will take place.

CHANGED THE SALE SLIP.

Then Barthman Caused Bicycle Dealer Schwabach's Arrest.

Alexander Schwabach, the bicycle dealer, of 1212 Broadway avenue, Brooklyn, was on trial in Gate Avenue Court, Brooklyn, this morning on the charge of E. William Barthman, of 612 Croton avenue, of unlawfully withholding a receipt for a deposit paid on the purchase of a bicycle.

Mr. Barthman June 19, purchased a bicycle for his sister, Miss Barthman, on the installment plan, paying $5.00 down. He claims that a receipt was given him for the deposit, and that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Schwabach showed that it would have been impossible for him to have delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's agent.

Mr. Barthman's agent, who was with him at the time of the purchase, testified that he delivered the bicycle to his sister, who delivered it to her brother, who delivered it to Mr. Schwabach's